

6516206639.txt

XM radio has been great. I travel a lot, so we go through a lot of areas that don't have many local stations. I think we should be able to get local weather reports, because we are not always out in perfect weather, and if there is no local station, we really don't know what is going on around us.